Happy Fall, everyone!

By now, a new school year is well underway, pumpkin spice is everywhere, and the holidays are just around the corner. I want to take minute to publicly thank our departing City Manager, Travis Askey, for his many years of service to the community and for his unwavering support for our library. For those of us lucky enough to have worked with him, his sense of humor and ability to get things done will be greatly missed. And I'd like to welcome our new City Manager, Clint Garza, who has already endeared himself to library staff by attending our "Into the Woods" Special Storytime on a recent Saturday. We look forward to working with him to continue to provide Bee Cave residents and visitors the great library services they deserve.
